Kessler toyed with the idea of night baseball for several years in the late '20s. Eventually he convinced electrical engineers it was practical. He announced at the minor league meetings in 1929 that he, Don Munier, chief of the old Western League would attempt to play at night in 1930.

Large House Set Ablaze In B.C. Town

By Stewart McNeill
Special to The Bulletin

KRESTOVA, B.C., April 26.—(BUP)—Fire-hungry Doukhobors spread out today for the first time in the current nude arson raids and set ablaze a large house in nearby Shorebrook.

Showers was the scene of a six-weeks radical Sons of Freedom fire and nude demonstration in 1947 when about half of it was destroyed. The town is three and a half miles from Krestova.

Pelice rushed to the scene of the fire from Nelson, in the town of about 500 Doukhobors. They live mostly in community houses with about 30 in each home, and police feared it was one of these which had been set afire.

The blaze was blazed on radio while who were smoking through a police corded around Krestova at night.

Meanwhile angry Freedomites planned a second nude march on nearby Nelson after reinforced provincial police threatened their first attempt to reach the interior city.

After failing to break police lines at the Nelson River bridge, more than 100 Freedomite women fired a three-story house last night the 14th building set ablaze in the week-long nude arson raids.

Provincial police disclosed members of the radical sect were smoking through police lines surrounding the Doukhobor capital, indicating the Kootenay valley area.

A small group of Freedomites led by Mrs. Polly Soukoff, were being thrown themselves since Sunday, taking only small bits of water, police said.

Two Doukhobor women attempted to strip provincial police constable Robert Kidd yesterday, police added. But the red-headed officer beat them off before they could do much more than subvert his tail.

Extra guards were alerted by the Doukhobor women and when they tried to cross the wooden span on the road to Nelson, 23 miles away.

Mrs. Soukoff tearfully pleaded with officers to allow the young Freedomites to go over the bridge to Nelson.

"We cannot be without our brothers and sisters," she said. "We are all for one and one for all. Give the order and let us meet the brigades of Christ."

Snow Gives Manitoba New Scare In Floods

WINNIPEG, April 26.—(BUP)—A fresh blanket of snow threatened today to prolong the Red River's disastrous rampage, adding to mounting suffering throughout Manitoba, North Dakota and Minnesota.

Flood conditions, barely checked from Winnipeg south of the U.S. border, spread through the Midwest in the wake of a three-to-eight-inch snowfall that swelled overflowing rivers even further and soaked the few areas that had not been hit earlier.

Cold weather, which followed in the wake of a rain blizzard, increased the suffering of flood refugees. Weather forecasters said the snow was unlikely to melt today but warned of additional flooding when temperatures rose. It averaged 20 degrees today.

RED STILL RISING

Residents of the swamped border town of Emerson, Man., and other communities along the Red River yesterday watched the flood levels today as the water continued its almost continuous three-day rise.

Pipeline Groups Outline Details

All-Canadian Route Offered By Alberta Natural Gas Co.

OTTAWA, April 26.—(CP)—Representatives of the Alberta Natural Gas Company said today before the Commonsense committee on railways and canals they are prepared to follow an all-Canadian route in building a natural gas pipeline from Alberta fields to the Pacific Coast.

The company and Pacific Coast Gas Lines Limited are seeking incorporation for supplying a license to operate a 1,000-mile pipeline. The incorporation bills have run through the Commonsense committee in the last two sessions because there was no assurance from the companies that they would follow an all-Canadian route and serve British Columbia before crossing into the United States.

John J. Connolly, an Ottawa lawyer appearing on behalf of Alberta Natural Gas Company, said the company had considered five possible routes for running the pipeline through the Canadian territory in its entirety from Alberta into it reaches Vancouver. Three of the routes, back and forth across the international boundary to avoid difficult terrain.

The fifth possible route for a considerable part of its course runs through the United States. The company is now in the process of securing a license to operate a 1,000-mile pipeline. MLAs Recall Famous Alberta Snake-Dance

The one and only snake dance ever performed in the Alberta legislature is back in the news after 12 years.

Liberal MP Joseph Dechene, of Athabasca riding, touched off old memories when he recalled in the House of Commons yesterday that some Alberta MLAs had danced in the chamber after one of their colleagues was released from jail.

His statement that the dance was led by the late Premier Abernethy, who resigned his seat after serving a jail term for libel.

It was followed today by similar denials from Edmontonians who were in the House or galleries at the time.

According to The Bulletin's report of the incident, the snake dance occurred March 22, 1938, when Joseph Urelin, Social Credit party whip, resigned his seat after serving a jail term for libel.

Urelin was sentenced to three months' imprisonment after he placed on some members' desks a pamphlet referring to "backers' toes."

The outbreak of applause which greeted Urelin's return to the House occurred during the legislative session when the speaker had left the house.

After a hundred applause for Urelin, Mr. Joseph Maynard, then minister of municipal affairs, led the house in singing "He's A Jolly Good Fellow."

Robbery Story Admitted As Evidence At Trial

Murder trial of Hong Sney Chin, 35, will end late this afternoon defence counsel W. J. Beaumont predicted today.

He announced the defence would, he would be believed, quickly this "return."

At Mr. Beaumont's request, the trial was adjourned until 1:30 p.m. today. Crown Prosecutor W. J. Shortt announced the Crown's case was closed just after Court recessed.

Tuesday, the Crown introduced its first evidence that Chin was on the scene of the night of Sam Kee's alleged murder. It was a statement made by the accused to police Oct. 15 in which he admitted helping Sam Kee in his room-house October 15 when Sam was strangled.

According to the statement, Chin was at a downtown restaurant the night of the strangling when he met Joseph Gilbert, who was convicted of Kee's murder last Thursday.

Gilbert arranged to go to Chin's home and there asked the Chinese to go to Sam Kee's room-house, according to the statement. They parked Gilbert's truck at a nearby street and walked to the room-house, continued the statement.

"We wanted for quite a while, I don't know, for about half an hour, and at all once I heard glass breaking."

The next thing was that Joe Gilbert was on top of Sam Kee. Gilbert had his legs around Kee's neck and Chin thought he knew Kee's name, but he forgot it, according to the statement.

Gilbert then took a rope and tied Kee up. Chin said he believed that Joe Gilbert was a man who took from his alleged victim's pocket and told Chin to search Kee's house.

"Later, he joined Chin in searching the house, before they returned to the room-house, the statement read. Then, Chin told Gilbert to cut the ropes binding Kee. "I said

"We the Heavenly Father will us, we must go! the reverend ex-Kel and chanted. "We ask you to join in our eyes, please let us go."

Police said no further arrests were planned. However, the jail at Nelson, built to handle only 50 inmates at a time, was crammed with 143 men today.

Following the rebuff by police, more than 100 women members chanted and prayed for three hours, then set ablaze a three-story building.

The flames of black smoke hung low over the valley as the Doukhobors continued to "cleanse everything with fire."

Very Canadian, 19-year-old leader of a band of naked tenagers, Freeman, boasted "we did it. We said we were free."

"Of course, I never laid a hand on Sam Kee at any time," Chin insisted in his statement. After a trial within a trial, in which Detective-Sergeant James P. Peterson, Detective Alfred M. Wardens and Constable William Peterson defended the master in which Chin's statement was obtained, Mr. Justice J. C. Shepherd ruled it inadmissible.

"I believe I was given freely and voluntarily," he said.

The Canadian Pacific Railway, its boats for all kinds of cargo, has been badly hit by the flood.

Damage estimated in Manitoba and the Dakotas ran into the millions of dollars, with the death toll reaching at least one man who fell out of a boat Saturday while helping rescue his neighbors.

At Grand Forks, N.D., Red Cross workers who landed up with their Canadian counterparts in day and night relief work said some 25,000 persons were affected by flooding in North Dakota.

Grand Forks county engineer Nick Ludewice estimated that damage to the U.S. alone amounted to $1,000,000 in this particular area and about twice that amount.

Scores of other cities and towns suffered proportionately.

The white world sprouts out of the world on St. Patrick's Day. On Bobbie Burns' birthday, half the population become self-appointed Scots," said Mr. Meenwell, referring to this week's celebration.

water on the flames, put out a fire yesterday at 82 street dump.

"Hot ashes, combined with internal combustion heat from the side, probably started the blaze, which was whipped by the wind," said City Engineer James Macdonald.

"The fire started near noon and was almost out eight hours later. We kept a detail on the dump most of the night pouring more water on it," he said.

The fire was subject of numerous complaints from residents of the area, who had been promised there would be no more burning at the dump.

Voluntary response to Alberta's vehicle inspection campaign has been so great that compulsory examination has been deferred for two weeks.

He hadn't seen them since. And so neither has the men's clothing store where they were due to go on display.

Elf-Like Kiddies Plan Big Concert

By IVERS KELLY
Bulletin Staff Writer

Rlives is a word for children, at Edmonton Creche and Day Nursery.

The dictionary says elves are frail, diminutive and beautiful and in groups lead a frolicsome life of dance and song.

That's exactly what doll-like, little creatures in a leaky, one-story, shack-like structure on 96 street are doing each day as they prepare for their second annual concert May 4 and in Edmonton Recreation Hall.

They are underprivileged elves. Their mothers have to work out all day and they haven't the money to pay even half the full cost of their children's daytime care.

BUSY HAVING FUN

But the elves don't worry a bit. They're all under six years of age. And they're busy having a wonderful time at dress rehearsals in which they are lords and ladies and fairies and butterflies and other gorgeous creatures who dance and sing in Latin and Silesia.

Their dances vary. It may be a sedate waltz. Or it may be a merry tag dance in which a four-year-old boy takes a three-year-old girl from her five-year-old partner.

Or it may be a square dance as the children live a scene familiar to Edmonton pioneers. Or maybe it's a polka, a ballet, a tap dance or a maypole dance.

Or maybe they are dwarfs—they are dancing around their beloved Snowwhite.

MANY CAN DANCE

Several dozen of the Creche's 81 daytime guests dance well. There would be more, but some are confined by extreme youth to their baby cribs because they aren't yet even a year old.

Next week is really their fifth annual concert, but the first three were in the Creche and didn't raise any money. Last year their first public concert raised enough at 50 cents per adult to pay not only for concert costumes but also for a piano.

"The important thing is that the children learn to play and learn to get fun for themselves, as they help give fun to others," said Miss Mary A. Myers, Reg'd N.

They said the French-Canadian bride of a few months was not under doctor's care although she had received medical treatment, for what was believed to be an infected finger.

Police report, following her arrest, said the accused woman had been bitten on the second finger of her right hand.

Long-Banned 'Ulysses' Soon Available Here

The long-banned classic "Ulysses" by James Joyce, will soon be on Edmonton Public Library shelves.

Said librarian Hugh C. Gourlay today.

"It is definitely a classic, and should be quite acceptable because of its literary value."

The book was banned in Canada until several months ago, and had been banned in the United States until 1933 because it was claimed to be obscene. The Irish author's novel deals with the thoughts of a group of Dublin men and women.

At UNIVERSITIES

Despite the long ban in Canada, the book is included in English literature courses in Canadian universities. Students and readers who wanted it had to spirit Ulysses across the international boundary.

"I haven't heard anything against Ulysses for years, except what I read in papers and magazines," Mr. Gourlay said.

It is definitely worth reading for its literary value."

"Finnegans Wake," also written by Joyce, and even more obscure and difficult to read than Ulysses, is in steady demand at the library, Mr. Gourlay said.

Labor Gov't Saved By Margin Of Five Votes

By Wellington Long
Special to The Bulletin

LONDON, April 26.—(UP)—The Labor government squeaked through two votes of confidence in Commons today with the smallest majority it has received in five years of power.

Both challenges by Winston Churchill's Conservative party on the government's 1950-51 budget were defeated by a margin of only five votes.

The vote in each case was 204 to 209. The Liberal party, with nine members, lined up solidly with the Conservatives against the government.

Had the government been defeated on either vote Prime Minister Clement Attlee and his colleagues would have resigned and probably would have asked the king to dissolve parliament and call a new general election.

PREVIOUS MARGINS

The government's smallest margin in the three previous votes of confidence in the current session of commons was 14 on March 9 on the issue of nationalization of Britain's steel industry. It won the other two confidence votes by 19 and 25 votes respectively.

The Conservatives challenged the government today on two provisions of the budget introduced last week by Chancellor of the Exchequer Sir Stafford Cripps.

The first doubled the tax on gasoline, raising the consumer price from 32 to 64 cents a gallon. The second imposed a 31-14 purchase tax on trucks.

WIN BY ELECTION

The Labor party meanwhile won a Scottish by-election to increase its nominal majority in commons to five, but the result came late to play a part in the confidence votes.

Labor candidate Thomas Steele, a former railway stationmaster, defeated Conservative Robert Allan, a former naval hero who holds a doctorate of philosophy from Yale University, by 283 votes in the by-election at West Dumfriesshire, Scotland.

French MPs Make Request

OTTAWA, April 26.—(UPI)—

The situation in Spain and Canada's relations with the Franco government will be fully aired

Friday by External Affairs Minister Lester B. Pearson.

Pearson said he would make his statements on Spain before the Commons external affairs committee. At the same time, he planned to discuss four-power control in Germany, and Canada's position with the former enemy state.

The external affairs minister promised to clarify Canada's stand on Franco Spain at the specific request to two French-speaking

Liberal MPs, Pierre Gauthier

(Port-au-Prince) and J. A. Brader

(Cochrane).

Interest in the Spanish situation,

especially in French-speaking

Canada, grew considerably since the cold war began to warm in recent years.

Morgan Turns Toughie, Chases Wyman In Film

New screen role played by Dennis Morgan in "The Lady Takes a Sailor" is a complete change of character for the popular star.

In the film, which starts tomorrow at the Empress Theatre, Morgan is the boy who gives jealous Jane Wyman a bad time, romantically and otherwise.

Since he has been playing the gallant roles of the thoughtful young hero in his past releases, Morgan may startle some of the fainter hearts in Warner Brothers' latest production.

ON THE DIVAN

When he isn't shaking Jane Wyman until her eyes bulge, he's pushing her around in the mud or chasing her around the divan. On the whole, the new Dennis Morgan is quite a change from the old.

24 Killed In African Riots

NAIROBI, Kenya Colony, April 26.—(CP)—Twenty-four persons were killed in a fierce battle Monday between 300 befeathered Sukutobes, armed with spears and a small party of Kenya police, a government statement said today.

Police opened fire to quell a mass spear attack in an outlying native area near Lake Baringo in northwest Kenya.

Among those killed was a British district officer in the Kenya administration and two British police officers.

Inside Hollywood

By Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD.—(AP)—Paris and New York designers are getting a boost from Vincent Price in their campaign for brighter clothes for men.

"Men are just dying to try new styles," says the lanky actor. "Just look around at all the bright-colored and flashy print shirts men are wearing. They're bursting for a chance to wear something different."

MANITOBA'S 'FLOOD BABY' DOING WELL

ST. VINCENT, Man., April 26 (AP)—A doctor who says his baby delivered a week ago by cesarean section is doing well. The mother, Mrs. Byron Doran, and her child are doing well.

Water from the flooding Red River was lapping at the doors of the hospital when Dr. Karlinsky arrived in an amphibious "duck" from Emerson, Man., across the Canadian border.

Ontario Gets 21 Gun Salute

PEARL HARBOR, April 26 (AP)—The big guns protesting Pearl Harbor boomed a salute today to the cruiser Ontario, Canada's second largest fighting ship.

The 1,000 Ontario arrived for a two-week visit, dipped its colors and returned the 21-gun salute for the visit.

The change took place as the ship sailed past the batteries which guard the entrance to Pearl Harbor.

Ranking naval officer at Pearl Harbor and the Pacific fleet were on hand to greet Capt. Hugh P. Pullen, the Ontario's skipper. The naval base band serenaded the 500 officers and men and the 200 recruits and reserve officers aboard.

The Ontario looked trim in its blue and grey paint. Most of the ship's crew will remain here for a few days early next month. It will put in two weeks in training exercises with the U.S. task force which is steaming from the east coast.

The Ontario will end its visit May 10.

Highway Gets Times OK

LONDON, April 26 (Reuters)—To connect the opposite coasts of Canada by a 5,000-mile system of roads fit for modern motor traffic is an enormous undertaking for a country with a population not much larger than that of Canada, London, or New York, the Times said today.

In a leading article the Times Canada Highway the Times noted that Halifax is about as far from Vancouver Island as from Mexico, adding that the forests, prairies and Rocky Mountains presented more arduous obstacles to travel and traffic than the Atlantic ocean.

After outlining the progress of agreements with the provinces on the highway, the article concludes: "The work of completing the highway is estimated to take seven years."

"That it is expected to be done so quickly in a country still occupied with post-war reconstruction is evidence of the energy on which the rulers of Canada can rely. That it has to be done at all is a reminder that the adventure of opening up a new continent is still a large part of Canadian national life."

McCann Will Head Canadian Delegates

OTTAWA, April 26 (CP)—Revenue Minister McCann will leave for Geneva this week-end to head Canada's delegation to the third assembly of the World Health Organization of the United Nations. Dr. McCann, a physician and past president of the Canadian Public Health Association, will be absent about a month.

Immunization Stressed As Diphtheria Check

Importance of immunization in combating outbreaks of diphtheria was stressed today by Dr. Norman Baxter, director of communicable diseases for the Alberta public health department.

Last year a serious epidemic of diphtheria resulted in 30 cases in Alberta and took 13 lives. Epidemics usually occur during the spring months, Dr. Baxter said.

"Modern methods of immunization against the disease are almost 100 per cent effective," the director learned, after a long session on the need, that it was not futile.

Josephine, a little whooping crane is the tallest bird in the United States. The species is almost extinct.

Josephine's precious egg was distributed last Saturday by the Arkansas National Wildlife Refuge, which is maintained by the U.S. Department of Interior.

Howard said he became suspicious when Josephine's mother, a female whooping crane, was seen to be acting strangely. He followed her to a pond and found her sitting on a nest of mud.

"I was wondering what she had been doing," he said. "I decided to take a look at the nest."

He said an egg last year but he didn't like to pick it up. He learned, after a long session on the need, that it was not futile.

A REALLY RARE EVENT Only Female 'Whooper' In Captivity Sets on Egg

AUSTWELL, Tex., April 26 (AP)—The only female whooping crane in captivity may become a mother.

If it, depends, of course, on whether there's a little whooper inside the shell of an egg in her nest.

She laid an egg last year but he didn't like to pick it up. He learned, after a long session on the need, that it was not futile.

Canada At Active Phase Of Pact

Second Part Of Atlantic Pact Is Putting Defences To Work

OTTAWA, April 26 (BUP)—Canada was moving quickly to second and active phase of the North Atlantic Pact, that of putting defences to work.

Minister Brooke Claxton said last night.

In a nationwide radio address over the CBC, Claxton reviewed Canada's defence policy and her plans and activities in this field.

The policy could be summed up in a few words, he said, "deter, or defend and defeat."

"Our aim is to work with other nations to deter aggression, and if necessary to defend our country and to defeat any enemy that may attack us," he elaborated.

Because of the attitude of the Soviet Union and its satellites, which threatened our prosperity, peace and security, Canada was spending twenty times as much as before the war on defence, he said.

"IN ORDER TO BE READY TO DEFEND OUR COUNTRY," he said, "we must have a strong and effective defence force."

Nearly 10 per cent of the federal budget, or three per cent of the national income, was being spent on the defence forces. That meant $1.50 for each man, woman and child in Canada, he said.

Since Canada had a huge army and a small population he had to take an active part in promoting common defence with the democracies. This resulted in the North Atlantic Pact.

Since the pact was signed, the North Atlantic nations have made good progress with planning and programs and now are moving into the next and more difficult stage of translating plans and programs into action," the defence minister went on.

"Fortunately for us that doesn't require any major changes in our plans because the role of a joint plan corresponds closely with the one we have already adopted for ourselves."

BROAD OBJECTIVES

The broad objectives of our defence policy, he said, are:

"At sea we have to defend our coast and provide the anti-submarine and minesweeping forces to enable our ships to travel across the North Atlantic in safety. Elsewhere they may be required."

"At home we should have the force—a highly mobile and airborne brigade groups and the aircraft to deal with an attack on Vancouver Island or from Mexico, adding that the forests, prairies and Rocky Mountains presented more arduous obstacles to travel and traffic than the Atlantic ocean."

After outlining the progress of agreements with the provinces on the highway, the article concludes: "The work of completing the highway is estimated to take seven years."

"That it is expected to be done so quickly in a country still occupied with post-war reconstruction is evidence of the energy on which the rulers of Canada can rely. That it has to be done at all is a reminder that the adventure of opening up a new continent is still a large part of Canadian national life."

McCann Will Head Canadian Delegates

OTTAWA, April 26 (CP)—Revenue Minister McCann will leave for Geneva this week-end to head Canada's delegation to the third assembly of the World Health Organization of the United Nations. Dr. McCann, a physician and past president of the Canadian Public Health Association, will be absent about a month.

Immunization Stressed As Diphtheria Check

Importance of immunization in combating outbreaks of diphtheria was stressed today by Dr. Norman Baxter, director of communicable diseases for the Alberta public health department.

Last year a serious epidemic of diphtheria resulted in 30 cases in Alberta and took 13 lives. Epidemics usually occur during the spring months, Dr. Baxter said.

"Modern methods of immunization against the disease are almost 100 per cent effective," the director learned, after a long session on the need, that it was not futile.

A REALLY RARE EVENT Only Female 'Whooper' In Captivity Sets on Egg

AUSTWELL, Tex., April 26 (AP)—The only female whooping crane in captivity may become a mother.

If it, depends, of course, on whether there's a little whooper inside the shell of an egg in her nest.

She laid an egg last year but he didn't like to pick it up. He learned, after a long session on the need, that it was not futile.

Gordon Makes Plea To CNR Workers

MONTREAL, April 26 (CP)—Donald Gordon, chairman and president, Canadian National Railways, today urged delegates to the 20th annual meeting of the CNR union-management co-operative movement, maintenance of "very important" to the railway department, to have pride in the performance of their work.

The individual is always the most important unit of any organization, he said.

Prowse Accuses Gov't Of Gas Price Fixing

Harper Prowse, Alberta Liberal leader, last night accused the Social Credit government of encouraging large oil companies to restrict production and keep gas prices up.

In a provincial affairs broadcast over station CFMR, Mr. Prowse also said the government was violating democratic traditions by refusing to give surface rights owners a royalty on the oil produced.

He said the government would be open to the public soon for the first time.

He said the government would be exceeding the "reasonable market demand."

The effect of this was to interfere with the economic laws of supply and demand with the result that gasoline prices remained high, he charged.

man from covering the confab because of a recent Beddoes' column which criticized some of the activities of the commission.

Watson Awarded Bout As Newman Disqualified

The people's choice, Whipper Billy Watson, brought down the house last night when he was declared winner over Lou Newman in the main event of the wrestling card at the Stock Pavilion.

Watson, founder of the Bulletin's Whipper Safety Club, was awarded the match by referee Chesty Jackson, who disqualified Newman for hitting him (Jackson twice with swinging blows).

Before the curtain came down, Newman, as usual, was living up to his reputation as a tough battler. After working on Watson's ear until it looked like a tail light of a car, he applied two back breakers and a body press to win the first fall at 15:20.

But it didn't take 'Hero' Watson long to even up the match. He used Newman up in the ropes and threw about three drop kicks at him, then used two whips and a body press to subdue him. All this took place in three minutes and 30 seconds.

Three minutes later Newman was disqualified for hitting ref Jackson a couple of times and knocking him to the mat.

Hart was awarded the first fall at 17:15 while Zimbleman, who resembles 'Humphrey' of comic fame, tallied the second at 8:30, with a body press.

Hart came back fast to win the last fall, and the match, 40 seconds later.

Two local favorites, Francois Miquet and Lou Kibberg, displayed some scientific grappling in the special event.

Miquet capped the match with a drop kick and body press.

Chesty Jack Jackson not only refereed the top three events, but also played in the preliminary Jackson played another ref to the floor, Nick Kitch in the one fall prelim.

Casey May Be Coming To Esks

HAMILTON, Ont., April 26.—(CP)—Swift running Tom Casey, ex-fighter, will be back in the ring, may have signed to play the 1956 season with Edmonton Eskimos.

Casey refused to deny or confirm the report last night, but it was hinted coach Anna Stukas of the Eskimos was successful in signing the colored flash to an Edmonton contract.

Esquima Officials Visit Stettler

STETTLE, April 26.—Edmonton Eskimos officials visited Stettler last night, showing the 1956 Grey Cup film to interested townsmen.

Esquima officials, including Jim Davidson, Bruce Angus and Art Mo, Frank Hess will manage the club.

Ukrainia Teams Call Practice

Ukrainia's senior and junior soccer teams will practice tonight at 7 o'clock at Clarke Stadium.

To Present Puck Trophies

Federation of Community Leagues will convene at Cloverdale community hall Friday night for presentation of trophies to winning hockey teams in the season just completed.

Ladies' broomball queens will also be crowned, and the soap box derby trophy winner will be awarded a cup.

All sports representatives are invited to attend.

Argos Line Up 15 Imports

TORONTO, April 26.—(CP)—When Toronto Argonauts start football training, July 15, they'll have at least 15 United States players on the roster.

President Bob Moran said today he is leaving soon for a U.S. trip to speak to several players lined up for the club.

Palestine took the last two losses from home and just held on to beat the bold challenge of the handsome American contender, making only his second appearance on a race course.

Palestine, beaten only once—by Masked Light in his last race at a two-year-old last fall—collected $11,600 first money.

Prize money made his bid run—upright out of a deep dip in the rolling course after being well placed all the way.

MASON OUT AS COAST PROMOTER

VANCOUVER, April 26.—(CP)—A permit to promote professional boxing shows here was granted yesterday to Jack Fox.

It was granted after Gene Mason, who has promoted boxing both in Vancouver and Edmonton, withdrew his application for a licence.

"I find it impossible to devote sufficient time to promotion of boxing," Mason said in a letter to the Vancouver Athletic Commission.

Vancouver already has one promoter, Al Principe.

Cleary May Apply For Permit

It is expected that Tom Cleary, professional football player who signed a Canadian Rugby Union pact with Edmonton Eskimos recently, will apply to the Edmonton Boxing and Wrestling Commission for a permit to promote prizefights here.

Cleary, former Washington Redskins back, is also developing the Tillamook Beach project at Dried Lake.

Jack Berry, sole boxing promoter in Edmonton at the moment, vigorously denied rumors that Drake Ortega, a substitute on last Thursday's card, is not Duke Ortega at all.

However, Berry refused to disclose where Ortega last fought.

Bulletin Writer Ejected By Irate EBWC Chairman

10 EDMONTON BULLETIN, Wednesday, April 26, 1956

Autocratic Dr. Dodds

How ridiculous on the president of a boxing and wrestling commission get? To be specific, how ridiculous can Dr. Lee Dodds get?

Last night Dr. Dodds, entirely unimpaired of the fact that the Edmonton Boxing and Wrestling Commission is presumed to function as a civic body, refused to permit Bulletin sports writer Dick Beddoes to remain in a meeting, being held at the Stock Pavilion.

The "crime" of citizen Beddoes? Daring to point out in the columns of this newspaper a number of only too apparent weaknesses that he's shown of late in the administration of the EBWC.

After a preliminary harangue that could be best summed up as "we'll run this commission the way we please," Dr. Dodds requested that staffer Beddoes leave the meeting.

More than this he personally escorted that young worthy to the door, while six or seven other members of the commission sat in silence.

It was all so silly, so petty and so entirely lacking in dignity, on the part of the EBWC, that it was not returned to its rostrum, from which vantage point he proceeded to crack the whip over those of his "subjects" still in the room.

The "subjects" included A. J. Shute, Alex Wynny, Fred Kemp and Charlie Croft.

A number of newspapermen, other than the banished Beddoes, were "permitted" to remain. One was yet a second Bulletin sportswriter, Bart Glibb.

Eventually the meeting went on record as confirming the recent decision awarded Hal Robbins as Robby Geary, a highly contentious decision, inasmuch as Robbins had been deemed guilty of repeatedly fouling Geary so that the latter was unable to continue finally.

As for dealing with other problems that have cropped up repeatedly of late, certain of which Beddoes had brought to light, . . . these were conveniently ignored.

It was gratifying to have one member of the commission phone later and make it clear that he heartily disagreed with the course of action pursued by the president-chairman.

Recently another member of the commission told the Bulletin that he had presented to the body a list of 26 resolutions, dealing largely with proposed changes in commission administration he thought long overdue.

So far nothing has been done to implement these. It boils down to this: is one man going to run boxing and wrestling in the city as he sees fit?

Take off the Roman sandals and the flowing robes, Dr. Dodds. On you they DON'T look good.

Cracking the whip in uncertain terms, Edmonton Boxing and Wrestling Commission chairman Dr. Lee Dodds last night ejected Bulletin sports writer Dick Beddoes from a meeting of the EBWC.

White-haired Dr. Dodds took it upon himself to remove Beddoes from the room in the Stock Pavilion where the commission was meeting, saying: "Your name will be mud if you don't retire from these premises."

To emphasize his remarks, the commission chairman threatened to call a police officer for assistance if the Bulletin newsmen refused. Beddoes left quietly, leaving this reporter to cover the meeting.

Says Statements Are Untrue

The confab had been called to discuss the controversial decision made out in the recent Geary-Hal Robbins fight. An account of the commission's discussion of the matter will be found on page 11.

Dr. Dodds' reasons for barring the sports writer were stated in a column written by Beddoes on April 22. The EBWC chief called the column "a scathing report, containing insinuations and untrue statements about the commission."

Beddoes had no comment to this latter charge. But he calmly asked: "Would you care to elaborate on what facts, if any, were distorted?"

Dr. Dodds' only answer was: "However, sports editor Stan Mohr assigned Beddoes to cover the meeting. He felt that Dr. Dodds had failed to show sufficient reason why the young writer should be barred. This reporter was sent along as 'insurance' in case Dr. Dodds left quietly, leaving this reporter to cover the meeting."

Severe Tongue-Lashing

The EBWC chairman then went on to give the former University of Alberta student a severe tongue-lashing. He said, in part, "Your organization is doing its job efficiently and well, and you don't have to tell us how to carry out our duties. If you don't play ball with us, your name will be mud."

Pointing to the exit, Dr. Dodds grabbed Beddoes by the arm and ordered him to leave. "Please retire," he said, "if you don't like it."

Social Cycle Club Forms

A social cycle club will be organized tonight in the Recreation building.

Starting time is 7:30. Purpose of this club will be to assist the Edmonton Safety Council in presenting safe, attractive programs for cyclists in the city, and to encourage the greater use of bicycles. Field days will be promoted and safety tests will be given.

Membership in the club will be restricted to 60. Reasons for this is that only small groups can safely travel on highways.

Members of the club's advisory board are YNCA, YWCA, AEA, Edmonton Safety Council, public and separate schools, Bicycle Dealers' association, CPCL, CNR and NAR.

COLUMBUS—Ohio State is the first Big Ten school to win football, basketball and indoor track titles the same year. It was the sixth year since 1906. The Buckeyes also retained the swimming title.

With the Big Four Baseball league schedule due to be broken out of the wrapper in three weeks, there's no point in delaying further this corner's annual forecast of "things to come."

So... here goes.

May 9: General managers of the teams all give out with enthusiastic—and highly original—pre-season statements.

"The other teams'll know they've been in a battle" (Harold Cundall, Calgary Purities); "Baseball's a slippery game. You never can tell until the last man's out" (Ken Samis, Edmonton Cu-er-Dodgers); "We'll have a young, hustling club" (John Ducey, Edmonton Eskimos, nee Oilers); "What kind of a team if we have? Who cares, with his-dogs going at 20 cents this season in Buffalo Stadium" (Sed Sam Timmins, Calgary Buffs).

May 16, opening day: Eskos manager Ed Morris is tossed out of the game in the seventh inning by umpire Johnny Lupul for protesting vigorously the 29th hit called on southpaw Ed Heller. "The kid just can't get the hang of the new ball rule," manager Morris explains, after he cools off.

President Sam Irwin warns the Esk manager that further trouble with the umpires will result in his being suspended.

May 20: Buffs' first-sacker "Babe" Work hits the longest single in the history of Renfrew—a 480-foot smash to the flagpole in centre field.

June 15: Outfielder Albert Suprenant announces that "owing to pressure of business" he will be unable to continue playing with Dodgers.

League umpire-in-chief Harry Ornest holds up game for 15 minutes, while an argument rages as to whether or not the press-box lights should be allowed to stay on. Ralph Morgan, ex-Eskimo manager, starts working out with Dodgers.

June 21: With the Eskos in last place, 10 games off the pace, general manager Ducey announces that re-inforcements are on the way. "I've got five junior college players coming from Seattle," he boasts, "all of them boys that could have signed with any one of seven major league clubs."

"We want a young, hustling team."

July 1: Esk manager Ed Morris chased by umpire Ornest for beating over a third strike. President Sam Irwin warns Morris that further trouble with the umpires will result in his being suspended.

Sed Sam Timmins announces that hot-dog sales are up 12 per cent over the 1949 season. "This looks like our biggest year yet," he tells a press gathering, called especially for the occasion.

July 10: Ralph Morgan, who has been installed at second base by Dodgers' owner Ken Samis, leading league in hitting with a .430 mark. Esk pitchers, particularly, can't get their former manager out. Better pacing the circuit in number of times a balk has been called on him, 139 in all. Dodgers' Al Purvis close behind, with 138.

July 12: League standing shows Purities and Dodgers running one-two at the head of the pack. Buffs and Eskos tied for the basement. "We'll show the fans a young, hustling team in the playoffs," John Ducey proclaims.

July 30: Ed Morris thrown out of game for 20th time. Is warned by president Sam Irwin that further trouble with umpires will result in his suspension.

Harold Cundall makes annual prediction. His Purities lead the loop by 20 games, with 10 to play. "We look like a cinch to make the playoffs," he brags.

Aug. 1: Buffs' release "Babe" Work. "Can't understand it, but 'Babe' has slowed down to a walk," says G. M. Timmins in announcing the first-sacker's release. Eskos immediately sign Work, then petition league president Irwin for special permission to ink five more new players.

Aug. 2: Eskos' general manager Ducey announces that pitchers Norman Dodge, Hal Straight and Ken Crozier, first-baseman Charles (Chuck) Henderson and second-sacker "Cap" Spillman have agreed to come out of retirement. "Henderson and Work will share the first base duties," Ducey explains.

Aug. 10: The "new" Eskos, having won 10 straight, are in second place, with a playoff spot guaranteed.

Aug. 18: Eskimos thump Dodgers 10-2, in opening game of semi-finals, as Dodge, Straight and Crozier pitch three innings apiece.

Manager Ed Morris is bounced by umpire Ornest, whereupon president Irwin warns him that any further trouble with the umpires will mean his suspension.

Aug. 25: In Calgary Sam Timmins, whose Buffs have failed to gain a playoff spot, announces that hot-dogs will retail at an even quarter when Purities tackle the winner of Eskos-Dodgers in the final.

Aug. 31: Eskimos crowned champions. At the same time league president Irwin announces that because of numerous run-ins with the umpires' Ed Morris has been "indefinitely suspended" until the opening game of the 1951 season.

Sept. 1: Season over John Ducey boasts that Eskos will be a brand new club for the '51 pennant chase. "I'll show the fans a young, hustling club."

IN GEARY-ROBBINS FIGHT

Commission Approves Referee's Decision

By Hart Gibb

By a vote of 6-1, Edmonton Boxing and Wrestling Commission members decided last night to uphold referee Johnny Smith's decision in the recent Benny Geary-Hal Robbins fight.

Robbins was awarded the fight when Geary was found to be unconscious, Geary claimed he could not get up after receiving three blows below the belt.

Before discussing the question, president H.W. Lee, stated that there were a few things he wished the members to know.

These were: (1) how many blows were thrown? (2) were they intentional? And last, what kind of abdominal support was Geary wearing?

DID SMITH ERR? With these questions in mind, commissioner Charlie Croft remarked that he thought referee Smith had made a mistake and should have disqualified Robbins.

EWBC regulation states that the referee can, at his discretion, disqualify any boxer who ignores his warnings concerning low blows.

President Dodds stated that he knew a prominent boxer in the city who claims the abdominal guard Geary wore was foolproof, and if he person were kicked, while wearing it they wouldn't be hurt at all.

Alex Wymynuk, EWBC secretary, related that Dr. Croft had found a well below Geary's belt upon examination following the fight.

Dodds said that Geary made his mistake when he told referee Smith to give Robbins the fight, because he could not continue.

Charlie Croft was the only member who voted against Smith's decision.

NO REDUCTION Other business discussed was a social reduction for wrestling cards at the Stock Pavilion in order that silent, such as Jack Dempsey, could be brought here.

The Commission approached Edmonton Exhibition Board on the matter, but was informed that promoter Al Geming is already engaged.

Also brought up for short discussion was Manuel Cruz, who

Toronto Marlboros Reach Dominion Senior Final

TORONTO, April 26.—(CP)—A Toronto club reached the Allan Cup final for the first time in 16 years last night as Toronto Marlboros won the Eastern Canada senior hockey title by defeating Sherbrooke Saints 3-1.

The victory, resulting from two third-period goals after Marlboros had nullified an early Sherbrooke lead in the second frame, gave the Ducks the best-seven series four games to two.

Big Hugh Bolton, a defensive mainstay for Marlboros all season broke up the game with a screened shot in the blue line at 16:30 in the last period and sent 8,700 fans home happy.

Don Ross and John McMillan assisted on the game-winner by Bolton. Ross passing from the Sherbrooke corner out to the blue line.

With 36 seconds remaining, the Saints pulled their goalie and shoved out six forwards in an effort to get the all-important goal. But the Marlies held out and splendid work by Ied Johnson, Marlboros' goalie, kept the Quebec senior champions in check.

Veteran Bernie Vinet opened the scoring in the first minute of the first period when he beat Pat Boomer in the Toronto nets. Norm MacIver and Bill Heindl assisted.

It was 15-year-old Danny Lewicki, much improved last night after Sherbrooke's two straight wins over the week-end in Montreal, who rapped in the tying marker in the final period. George Armstrong and Rocky Sullivan assisted.

Marlboros were highly favored to take the series when they ran off with the first three games but were jolted by the two successive setbacks last Saturday and Sunday.

The Toronto club will leave for Western Canada on the next day and to two face Calgary Stampede in the dominion senior final.

Wrestling In Gardens Cancelled

Cancelled

Wrestling promoter Al Geming announced last night that he has called off his big card which had been tentatively slated for the Gardens.

Geming had planned to stage an all-star card in the Gardens, which would include a title match between Whipper Watson and Al "Mr. Murder" Mills; an engagement between two lady wrestlers, Mildred Barker and Mae Weston.

However, being unable to see eyes to eyes with the Exhibition board, regarding rent, the young promoter has decided to stage these bouts at the Pavilion on successive weeks.

Watson and Mills will likely meet on May 25, while the female will grapple it out a week later.
